

The Rockefeller Group

*Tom McCormick, SIOR, FRICS
Senior Vice President and Regional Development Officer
Rockefeller Group International*

Tom McCormick, III, SIOR, FRICS is Senior Vice President and Regional Development Officer for Rockefeller Group International, in charge of Western Regional Operations. Tom's responsibilities include development of new opportunities for industrial and office real estate business through his extensive contacts in both the brokerage and end-user communities. Prior to joining the company in March 2004, Tom was the Chief Operating Officer of Panattoni Development Company.

Tom began his real estate career with Coldwell Banker Commercial in 1981. In 1982 Tom and five other CB brokers left to start Cahill Commercial Brokerage which was purchased by Iliff, Thorn & Company. Iliff, Thorn was purchased in 1995 by Colliers Macaulay Nichols. After three years as President of Colliers Macaulay Nichols, a privately held Canadian-based commercial brokerage firm with 85 offices around the world, Tom left to become COO of Panattoni, which is one of the largest industrial developers in the United States.

As a member of the Society of Industrial and Office REALTORS (SIOR), Tom served at the National President of SIOR in 1998 and in 2010 was presented the Howell Watson Distinguished Service Award. He is also actively involved in the Society's Foundation (SIORF), having served as its President in 1999 and 2000. He served as Chairman of the REALTOR Commercial Alliance Advisory Board (RCA) in 2002. He also was a member of the Sacramento Association of REALTORS and was the Association's National Achievement Award winner nine times from 1992 to 2002. He was a member of the Jesuit High School (Carmichael, CA) Board of Trustees from 1995 - 2004. In 2010 Tom was awarded the FRICS designation.

Tom heads the regional office of Rockefeller Group Development Corporation based in Orange County, California.